Introduction

The reason we must pray for the youngest group in the church is because it is directly connected to the evangelization of the next generation. This is something God truly desires. The children of the youngest group are very important to our church. Please pray so that our church may truly become a church that carries out the Remnant movement.

Today's question is: What is the Gospel?
The gospel is that Jesus is the Christ. May today become a time when we once again hold onto this covenant and receive answers through prayer.

Introduction Points

1. God Fulfills His Promises

God always fulfills His promises, so we simply need to pray. Satan continually deceives people and causes them to pursue other things. In the past we were deceived because we did not know, but after knowing the truth, continuing in deception becomes a choice. May this be corrected today. This is fundamental healing.

2. The Summary of All God's Promises

All of God's promises are summarized in Christ and His blood. Ultimately, the final message is the blood of Christ.

3. The Blood of Christ Solves the Fundamental Problem

Within Christ's blood there is complete problem solving:

- The problem of original sin
- The problem of Satan
- The remaining problems of life

These issues must first be resolved.

Main Message

When we listen to messages, sometimes they may seem distant. But if even one word of God truly enters our hearts, the answer will come. God promised three things.

---

1. “I Will Build My Church on This Rock”

This promise is absolute authority.

- No one can destroy it. Do not be deceived.
- Those who believe Jesus is the Christ will never perish.
- There may be temporary mistakes, but God turns them into reversals through the power of Christ’s blood.
- Those who hold the covenant will never collapse.

All we need to do is stand firm. Then we will conquer everything.

Jesus died on the cross to fulfill this promise. Think about it: God Himself came and died. Within His death, He promised this victory. Nothing in the world can overturn this promise.

Satan constantly tries to deceive people so they cannot believe this. But we must remember: the church is built on the rock, and no one can overturn it.

2. “The Gates of Hades Will Not Overcome You”

This means we will surely win.

- The power of hell can never overcome us.

- Even if we fall into sin, Satan cannot ultimately defeat us.
- As we continue in Christ, we will eventually experience conquest.
- Even spiritual problems will be healed as we enjoy Christ.

This is an absolute promise that never changes.

Some people have listened to the gospel for 30 years or more. At first they may expect everything to change quickly. Sometimes they feel disappointed when answers do not come immediately. But later they realize it was God's timetable.

Even if problems remain, they no longer control us because our background is Christ. Satan may attack, but he cannot destroy us. We live as long as God allows and fulfill the work He gives us.

Even failures become stepping stones to greater success.

3. "I Will Give You the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven"

The key means the answer.

The answer to life is Christ and His blood.

When Jesus said He would give the key of heaven, it means He gives Himself to us. Christ Himself is the key.

We must truly come to the conclusion that Christ is the answer, especially when we are alone before God. Everyone can say "Amen" in church, but the true answer must come personally.

When this becomes your true answer:

- The doors of heaven open.
- The doors of the earth also open.

This becomes the beginning of real spiritual life. Before that time, everything is preparation.

The way to open these doors is to hold Christ as the covenant and confess Him.

The best examples are the seven Remnants in the Bible who continually held onto this covenant.

Conclusion – How Should We Live?

1. Live by the Covenant Altar

Live continually with the covenant.

Confess it, enjoy it, and hold onto it in prayer. Practically, this is expressed through focused prayer topics like 777 prayer. At the center of everything is the blood of Christ.

2. Understand the Purpose of the Cross

Jesus died and resurrected to save people. This is expressed as world evangelization. When our hearts align with God's heart for saving people, our understanding and enjoyment of the gospel deepen.

Christ becomes:

- The standard of our life
- The standard of the world

May our spiritual eyes be opened again to confess:
"Jesus is the Christ."

3. Deep Prayer and Peace

May we have deep prayer filled with peace and grace. As we enjoy the covenant deeply, healing will take place in our lives.

Final Emphasis

Among all these things, the most important is holding onto the covenant:

Jesus is the Christ.

Confess again:

- God is my living God.
- The church is built on the rock.
- The power of hell cannot overcome me.
- The keys of the kingdom of heaven have been given to me.

When the word based on the covenant enters us, works of God will arise. When spiritual problems come, if we hold onto the covenant, victory takes place right there.

Therefore Paul said to Timothy:

"Preach the Word in season and out of season."

When the word enters us, doors open and history begins.

May today become that day for all of us.
Hold onto the covenant and come to the true answer.

Confess deeply and sincerely until the word becomes your covenant.

Prayer

Almighty God, we sincerely thank You.
May this precious covenant enter our hearts so that we may glorify You, be freed from curses, and see the doors of life opened.

Open the important doors of finances for the church.
Open the great doors for evangelism and missions.
Open the doors for the Remnants and for multiethnic ministry.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ.
Amen.
