Moses' Absolute Bartizan

Exodus 3:18-22

When the Word of the covenant enters our hearts and establishes an absolute foundation there, we refer to that as the absolute covenant. The term "bartizan" seems to convey a slightly broader and more expansive meaning than the word "covenant." However, that content is the Word of the covenant. The term "bartizan" can also refer to a person who possesses the covenant. If there is a Word that entered as the covenant, it will manifest as absolute authority in our lives.

1. Exodus 3:18
   1) The word that reverses life – Absolute bartizan
   2) Moses became the absolute tower of that age
   3) The background for conquering every problem in the wilderness
   4) The principle remains the same even today

2. Eternal Word – Covenant – Authority
   1) Most precious thing before God's eyes
   2) No one can stop
   3) No need for help
   4) Don't need to ask anyone

3. The evangelist that has the word
   1) Answers follow
   2) Field leaders follow
   3) History follows
   4) Saves the world

4. Conclusion
   1) It is the Word that transforms people. This is when life is transformed. That is why we must ride the flow of the Word.
   2) The reason they died in the wilderness was simply because they defied God's will. This is a crucial lesson for life.
   3) The condition for God's answer is the Gospel. The Gospel that was deeply imprinted in Isaac determined His life.
