4/19/26

The Bartizan that the Church Officer must Establish

Core Worship

Acts 1:1-8

As church members and lay leaders, we must find the lifelong mission prepared by God. Do not look far away, but confirm the 300% answer within your own field. First, begin thanksgiving, meditation, and forum within the home. In the church, prepare worship, the Word, and prayer, and raise the bartizan of specialization, globalization, and evangelization in the field; the work will be accomplished by God.

1. What must be changed (the bartizan that changes me)
   1) We must restore the true covenantal understanding of blessing by correcting what is false.
   2) Discover the value of faith.
   3) Restoration of priorities—reconciliation (Matthew 5:24), prayer (Matthew 6:33), the plank (Matthew 7:5)

2. What must be established (the bartizan of the Holy Spirit)
   1) A lay leader relies not on one's own strength, but on the Counselor, the Holy Spirit (John 14:16)
   2) Confession of the name and authority of Christ (Matthew 16:13–19)
   3) The fullness of the Holy Spirit promised by the Lord of the resurrection

3. What must be prepared (the bartizan of the throne)
   1) The completed covenant—"It is finished" (John 19:30)
   2) 40 day concentration—the mission of the Mount of Olives (Acts 1:3)
   3) The work of the Mark's Upper Room—the resolve for what God desires

4. Conclusion – Save the world only by the power of the Triune God
   1) The promise of being with us: The Lord, who has all authority in heaven and on earth, is with us until the end of the age in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:16–20).
   2) The promise of peace: Because the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, is with us, there is no reason to be troubled in any field (John 14:1–27).
   3) The promise of power: Even now, when a lay leader holds to the covenant and prays, the blessing of the throne comes upon them, the heavenly armies and angels of the Lord are mobilized, and all bartizans of darkness are broken down.