Pulpit

Exodus 3:18-22

Without the Word, everything is meaningless. This is because what God fulfills is the Word. When we receive the Word through the pulpit, then that is our covenant until that Word is fulfilled. The covenant has authority and power. Simply by receiving the Word, we can conquer the field. The life of a believer is the life of conquest and saving. The content of the Textbook, Handbook, and Notebook is the word. They are expressions of the received Word adapted to the field.

1. Moses received the pulpit message
    1) The current situation was overturned
    2) Entire life ended with this word alone
    3) There was no one to block this word – All the environments and circumstances
    4) Whenever necessary, a miracle came to overcome the situation.

2. We must stake our lives on the Word
    1) He does all things according to the Word, by the Word
    2) He fulfills what He has promised
    3) It begins only when the Word is spoken
    4) Prophet Habakkuk asked a question and waited for the Word

3. Word of the Everlasting Covenant
    1) Those who receive it will surely conquer
    2) They look down upon the world—transcendence
    3) They will see evangelism — they will see disciples
    4) Ultimately, they become evangelists and leave a masterpiece

4. Conclusion
    1) We must become those who receive the Word. The fundamental covenant becomes manifested in the field as our power.
    2) Those who pray with sincerity receive the Word. It will surely be fulfilled and answers will come.
    3) Change took place upon Moses' seemingly stagnant life. This is the same for us today.
