Sunday Core Worship

The Start of the Remnant Movement

John 21:15-18

Everyone considers the Remnant Movement to be important, takes an interest in it, and prays for it. This is an area that needs to be more specified with terms like “3 Courtyards,” “three day weekend age,” and “the age of Holy Meditation” emerging. It’s fair to say that how one spends their Friday, Saturday, and Sunday determines the course of their life. This is a matter that requires not only the individual but also the parents around them, as well as church teachers and leaders, to think about and dedicate themselves to with a sense of mission.

1. Role of the Parent
    1) The Remnant Movement mostly begins with parents.
    2) Relay the Gospel.
    3) Parents’ covenant and attitude toward life are passed on.
    4) Platform of a summit life.

2. Feed my Lambs
    1) Future generation prepared by God.
    2) Samuel and David.
    3) Obadiah and the 100 Prophets—Elisha’s Disciples.
    4) Paul’s synagogue.

3. Evangelism Missions Field
    1) Prenatal – Young Adult : Importance.
    2) Disaster Zones – People in the Blind Spots.
    3) 5000 tribes.
    4) Evangelist disciples, go to those facing crisis.

4. Conclusion
    1) There are many prepared and eager people in the field—if you follow the Word, you will surely meet them.
    2) The Lord told Peter, “Follow me” (19). We just need to follow Him too—Matthew 4:19.
    3) When you know the gospel, your perspective changes; when you know prayer, your power changes. Restoring the gospel is the way.
