

My Tabernacle (Ex. 26:31-37)

I believe that God will give His covenantal word and grace. Today's message is entitled my tabernacle. Apostle Paul testified that the gospel was His gospel. This signified my Christ. We are amidst the 10th evangelism church camp. It is very precious for us to testify the gospel to save many. That is God's only desire, that is why you must partake within this evangelism camp. For that is grace and blessing. There are those who say that evangelism is difficult but if you simply participate in it, it will not be difficult. For the church must partake in evangelism and mission. Without evangelism there is no reason for the church to exist. Whatever state or form you may be in may you participate within evangelism and mission. We are truly thankful that God has saved us. I do believe that evangelism is the only thing that we can do to offer up to God for the fact that He saved us. There are times where we have thoughts of why we do not receive answers. Of course, it is very important for you to receive answers because that is the way for you to stand as a witness. God spoke about two conditions that you must keep in order for you to receive answers to prayer, which is Christ and world evangelization. This is the summary of God which is that if you keep these two conditions all these promises will be given to you. That's why you must personally confess that Jesus Christ has liberated you from all curses. When you continuously make the confession you will gain enjoyment and spiritual strength. With the spiritual power given by God you must align your life to 237. That is when God will continuously give answers. This is God's desire and will for you yet, you continuously decide not to do this but seek answers. That is why there are conflicts between you and God. When you align your life to this you will receive continuous answers. There are times when unpredictable answers will be given to you and miracles will arise. That is why for the sake of evangelism we must raise up evangelists specialized in evangelism and mission. It's a very important aspect to raise up many specialized evangelists within the church. Many of us must be raised as specialized evangelists that receive the answer of the regional church which is the biblical system. It's very important for many of the church officers to truly connect with God's heart. It's very important for us to raise up the true remnants who hold to the covenant in advance for the future. How important is it to raise up the specialized evangelists who truly resolve inside their heart to be used for the sake of evangelism. May the blessing be upon us all so that we can raise up many specialized evangelists through the 10th evangelism church camp.

1. My Tabernacle

In today's passage it records in verse 26 that God commands the Israelites to build a tabernacle. For the Israelites they may have the thought of why God commanded them to build a tabernacle when they were amidst hardships. However, in God's perspective no matter how difficult it may be within the wilderness you must build a tabernacle. It is God's point of view that because you are in a dire situation and state you must build a tabernacle even more. For the tabernacle is the place for them to meet God. Wherever they may go they cannot meet God. That is the place where they are able to meet God and receive His word. That is the place where they were forgiven for all their sins. Of course, if people of the world hear such words they may think that it sounds foolish. However, for the people of God it's a matter of life or death. It's a matter of life or death if they truly have the tabernacle or not. Of course, this is more important for them because the field they were placed in was the wilderness. Within the times of difficulties we must meet God. The only way for you to live is to receive God's word for we are spiritual beings. All mankind are spiritual beings so what should they do? They have no choice but to perish if they do not receive God's word. They will perish if they do not build a tabernacle regardless of the state that they may be in. You will be able to notice the difference in your spiritual state when you skip one week of worship. If you have a friend that left the church for a year or two and returns back it's quite difficult for you to connect with them spiritually. If a believer leaves the church for 10 years and returns back they're in a completely different state. That is why you must have your personal tabernacle. In other words, you must have your Christ. You must be able to have your own personal place to which you are able to deeply confess and hold to the covenant of Christ. That is why you must be able to have a place where you are able to meet God and receive His word. When you receive that word you must give your sincere and deep confession before God.

In the time of the wilderness for the Israelites, the most important thing was the Tabernacle. The Tabernacle needed to be built for them to meet God. God does all things according to his word, so they needed to receive his word first. If the tabernacle didn't exist, they cannot receive God's word. If the tabernacle does not exist, they cannot meet God. The word would not exist as well. For 400 years before Jesus came down to Earth, God's word did not exist. There was not a single prophet to proclaim God's word at the time. That is why they would interpret the old testament with their own interpretations. They are the ones who gathered their strength to persecute Jesus on the cross. They were not the people of the world like the Gentiles, they were the people of God. Then what was the problem? The problem was the fact that they did not receive God's word at the time. That was a severe issue. Let's say you continuously receive the word and the word comes inside of you, then your word will be overturned to miracles. To the extent that if the tabernacle did not exist, you would not be able to meet God, so they did not receive the manna. Why would they need to receive the manna at the time if they did not even meet God? There was no need for the water from the rock to exist if they did not meet God. To be honest, if there is no place for them to meet God, there is no reason for the Israelites to exist nor for them to take the path of the wilderness. In other words, if the tabernacle did not exist, there is no reason for God to put the pillar of the clouds and fire up. However, this tabernacle symbolizes Jesus Christ and all the objects within the tabernacle explained Christ. The ark of the covenant is Jesus Christ and the mercy seat that was above the ark of the covenant was Jesus Christ. The lampstand and the bread of the present signified the body of Jesus Christ. The water basin that existed to wash their hands signifies the washing of their sins before they entered the most holy place. Everything within the tabernacle signified Jesus Christ. Even the court of the tabernacle signified Jesus Christ. The court was for the Gentiles for those to receive salvation. The courtyard was for the remnants and for prayer in the name of Jesus Christ. May you once again hold to Jesus Christ as your covenant. You must be able to have your personal tabernacle. It's not that you build a tabernacle that only exists within your home, you must be able to build your own Jesus Christ within you. May the blessing be upon you so that you can go into deep prayer to deeply enjoy Jesus Christ.

2. My Summit Time

The covenant is complete and perfect. There is nothing to add on the precious blood of the cross of Jesus Christ. It has already been finished and complete, there is no reason for Jesus to die a second time. It is eternally completed and finished. There is no other gospel you need for he is the complete and only gospel. Then what must you do? If he is the solution to your curse and original sin, then what must you do? There is no other answer and this is the only answer that you need. To be honest, we are stuck within a conflict because the problem that you are facing does not match God's only solution of Jesus Christ he has given to you. For example, if you are facing financial difficulties, but the word is not working in your life, there is no choice but for you to go elsewhere. God gives you the word that Christ's blood is the only answer, but yet you are unable to see that he is your only solution. If God said that Jesus Christ, the blood of the covenant, is your only answer, then what must you do? You must be able to first have faith. If you are unable to have faith in only Christ, then you need to question yourself. You need to confirm through the bible whether Christ is the truth to you or not. It does not matter if you are within this movement for 10, 20, or 30 years, if you are unable to have faith in only Christ, you must confirm. Kneel down before God and really confirm through the Bible. If you cannot confirm it today, the next day, or so on until you can confirm it and have faith. To be honest, it is all in vain if you listen to the sermons but lack faith. You may know of it, but it is not the Living Word that is active in your life. It is the active Word that is of no use to you. And of course, you are in grave trouble when 20 or 30 years have passed, and it is still words that simply pass and are not deeply in you. May you confess that Jesus is my Christ and is the answer to my all. After you confirm it, you will have faith in it. You may lack faith even after confirming it. There are times within your walk of faith when God takes his time to change you when you want to be rapidly changed. This is in the times when you have confirmed it but do not change. You may question and wonder why you lack faith even when you have confirmed it. That's when you must pray. You must fight the spiritual battle. It is not God who is blocking you from this faith, but it is Satan who is blocking you from having faith in Him. You are not at fault because it is you who wants faith but Satan is blocking it. That is why you must fight the spiritual battle if you desire to have faith. What will happen after you have faith? You shouldn't just end with faith, you should hold to it. When that becomes your spiritual weapon, you must confess to it and hold onto it. In Matthew 6:33, it says that you do not have to seek anything else for it will be given to you. God's message is, "I have already given you all things. Why are you continuously seeking after other things when you are not a Gentile, but a person of God." The only thing you must do is confess and enjoy the Gospel. This is what you must do to gain the economy that God gives to you. In God's perspective, regarding your financial difficulties, he may question why you are using your own schemes and ways to get out of your difficulties. He has given you the answer which is the solution to all of your difficulties. Looking at your economy, God is questioning whether you have gained it all on your own, or if he was able to provide you with all things. It is all by God's grace by which we can gain the economy to earn a living. You may say that you are working hard to make a living, but is it you who have created the world or established the system to work to make a living? No, it was God who has created the world and the system starting from Adam until now. Even within the technologies and businesses, so truth be told, there is nothing that you own. Nothing is yours, so God gets very frustrated when you try to use your own efforts. You could do whatever that your heart desires, but may you put this in the center of your heart and do it. For the 7 Remnants, they were able to put this in their heart and resolve every aspect of their lives. You must do this as well. This is the fundamental challenge of your life. May you proclaim to God, "I desire to live my life like this so please be at work." Especially for the Remnants and young adults, "With this alone, I will live my life. If I perish, I perish." For the 7 Remnants, they did not simply resolve live matters, but conquered all things. If you continuously confess and receive the Word of God as your covenant, then that will be revealed upon your field. And according to His time schedule, God will be at work even if you face a problem. May you truly be thankful for all the work that He does. It is truly amazing that you simply hold to God's Word, confess it as your covenant within your time of prayer, and God will do it. Matthew 8 talks about the centurion. It says in the latter half of the scripture, "Go, let be done, for you have believed." The servant was healed at the moment, especially for centurion, as a Roman citizen, he was brought to Jesus. Yet, even before he left his own home, he already came to the answer and resolved in his heart. That is why the centurion didn't even bring his servant along with him. He left the servant at home. That is why Jesus said to the centurion, "Let us go to your home," yet the centurion said, "Just speak Your words, and it will be done." And Jesus didn't even command and say, "Your servant who is paralyzed will be healed." Yet, He simply said, "Go; let it be done as you believed," and the servant was healed. It means that, when you simply hold onto God's word, the Holy Spirit that is unseen to the eyes will be at work. That is the conclusion of the Bible: that all the work that is seen to the eye will become your answer. This is your walk of faith. And summit time is putting this into practice. So, may you personally set the time and put it into practice. At that time, you might listen to the Word or write down the Word. You might give praise or pray. For you to keep this summit time every single day is building an altar. Undoubtedly, this is the truth, for there is evidence in the Bible that when you do it, it will be done. That doesn't mean you will no longer face problems. In the midst of the problems that you face, answers will continuously be given to you, for problems need to exist for you to receive answers. So, when problems do come, it will be overturned to answers. That is why you will be abundant within the problems that you face. It is truly so strange, yet we're truly thankful for the work He does. This is what we call enjoyment of the walk of faith. You have no choice but to stand as a witness. Through this time, you will be able to resolve before God and say, "God, I will give my entire life to you." And you will be happier and abundant in all aspects. May you all be like this. Soon enough, we will all be facing our own deaths. That is why, as we look towards and anticipate to go to heaven, we must be able to resolve everything on the earth. That is wisdom. If you continuously make all of your decisions and judgement according to the standard of the world, you have no choice but to take an incorrect path.

Let us summarize the word. You must have the personal spiritual tabernacle. You must eat the spiritual manna and drink the spiritual water from the rock. Also, there lies the spiritual lampstand. There lies the spiritual presence. Everything that was included in the tabernacle signifies Jesus Christ. That means that every aspect of your life must be only Jesus Christ. And that means you must do only Jesus Christ. That is why you must do only Christ, and it must be only Christ 24 hours. That is why, in all things that you do, you must hold onto Christ and do it. And you must have the summit time that is set apart from other times in which you are able to deeply hold onto and confess Jesus Christ. That is how you are able to confess, imprint, proclaim, and enjoy only Jesus Christ. All those who are able to continue this and put it into action were able to receive answers. You are able to partake in evangelism and devote yourself for the sake of the church because it's all from the spiritual power that comes from this. And say that you devote yourself without having the set time. Then, it all becomes a religious life for you. It's a religious life if you continuously partake in evangelism and, yet, do this. Evangelism and devotion is very important. From time to time, you are able to receive answers. But if you're only centered on the devotion and the sake of being used for evangelism without having the set time, you will face spiritual problems and take the incorrect path. Evangelism is very important, especially for the church officers. However, if you're only focused on that and do not enjoy Christ, God will not be pleased. However, if you are centered on only Christ and specialize in Christ alone, God has no choice but to open all the doors for you. That is why, when you receive the true answers He has given you, You have no choice but to give all glory to God. That's what God wants. God desires for your heart to connect with Gods'. May the blessing be upon you as you meditate on the Word, "My Tabernacle," and deeply go inside of Christ.
