A Body Have You Prepared for Me

Heb 10:1-10

The world was created by the word and is sustained by the word. However, there is probably no unbeliever who would believe this. We who believe know this through faith, but if asked exactly how it came to be, even we cannot give a definitive answer. In this way, there are actually many things we believe but do not fully understand. For example, if asked whether we know God, our answer is not so clear. Furthermore, if we reflect on how much we truly know about the terms we use so often - such as Christ, prayer, precious blood, and the covenant - we will often find that our answers are not as clear as we might think.

In this week's RT and TCK evangelism messages, they explained why works arise in the three organizations. It is because they are engaged in the Nephilim movement. This refers to a demonic movement which is a spiritual movement. However, the important question is: why do works arise when people engage in a spiritual movement? This is what matters.

Those who understand original sin and God's answer to it will know the reason. Clearly, there is a spiritual reality at work here, and the answer is spiritual as well. The conclusion, then, is that whatever we do, we must rightfully do it in a spiritual way. Knowing this is the answer. It means that these eyes must be opened. If these eyes remain closed, our lives will amount to nothing more than flailing in the void. Anyone who understands this principle will likely not deny it.

But what about us? Why are we so desperate for an answer? It's because our lives are not spiritual. God is spiritual, but I am not. Then, there is no connection. Is my prayer spiritual? Am I praying in a way that crushes the head of Satan, or is it merely a prayer based on physical things? Am I living by the covenant? How spiritual is my walk of faith? These are the answers to those questions.

They have relentlessly transformed every aspect of culture into a realm dominated by demons in order to spread their influence throughout the world; the question is, how relentless are we in pursuing the Holy Spirit? They are possessed by demons - are we possessed by the Holy Spirit? That is why we are bound to lose. We must restore this. If terms like Matthew 6:33 or "double portion of the Holy Spirit" were to come within us, and if the 777 prayer were to take place, there would be no question about it; but if the most fundamental three offices of Christ were to come into our sight, we would immediately be able to live in the spiritual realm. The question is, to what extent has this been achieved? Everything spiritual must come from Christ. It is only normal for it to come through an understanding and enjoyment of the three offices promised in Him. Of course, the same applies to physical matters as well.

1. A Body Have You Prepared for Me

1) In verse 5, it says, "but a body have you prepared for me." The title comes from that verse and describes the moment when the Lord came to this earth and offered himself as a sacrifice. It is a passage from Psalm 40 and is David's confession. David makes many important prophetic confessions about Christ.
2) Psalm 22:1 "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Psalm 110:1 "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool." Verse 4: "You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek." Although Psalm 2 does not explicitly state that it was written by David, theologians generally interpret it as one of David's psalms. Psalm 2:7 "I will tell of the decree: The Lord said to me, 'You are my Son; today I have begotten you.'"
3) Not only that, but in verse 7 today, "Then I said, 'Behold, I have come to do your will, O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book.'" This, too, was David's confession found in Psalm 40.

4) Today, Hebrews chapter 10 explains this “A Body Have You Prepared for Me.” Verses 1-2 state that “For since the law has but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered every year, make perfect those who draw near.” Otherwise, if those sacrifices could have made people cleansed forever, the offering of sacrifices would have ceased.
5) Verses 4-5 states that it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins, so God prepared a body specifically for me. And verse 7 states that this one body was the one written in the scroll of the book.
6) Verse 10 states, “And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.” He goes on to explain in verses 11-12 that while every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins. Verse 14 states, “For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.”
7) And in verse 16, quoting Jeremiah 31:33, “after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds.” In verse 17, “then he adds, ‘I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.’” He concluded that “where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.”
8) This is the result of what Christ has accomplished. The covenant has been fulfilled, and he finished it all (John 19:30). Now the ball is in our court, and everything depends on what we do.
9) Matthew 11:12: “From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and the violent take it by force.” This means that since God has accomplished everything for us and given it to us, everything now depends on us. It also means that God’s time schedule will surely come if we act on it.
10) Even if, like Hannah, we pray for our own earthly purposes, the moment God opens our eyes, we will immediately find the answer, conquer, and enjoy peace. Since he has finished it all, all we need to do is open our eyes to what he has done.
11) As we go through this time schedule, our prayers become spiritual prayers and spiritual weapons that crush the serpent’s head. As we receive answers, our eyes continue to open wider to Christ, his precious blood, original sin, Satan, and demons. Then, as we come to understand God, his will, and his heart, and as we become a deeper person of God, WIOS is established and we move toward OURS.
12) In this way, all our thoughts and lives become spiritual, and we are gradually becoming like Moses, Joseph, Daniel, and Paul. We must be spiritually connected with God. Then, even if we do nothing, God will act. That is what the Bible teaches. While some answers come through prayer, in reality, most are simply given as a gift of grace.
13) In numerical terms, only a very small number of prayers are answered. However, receiving such answers - which are few and special - in a natural and effortless way is what it means to be spiritually connected. Countless figures in the Bible were like this. At the pinnacle of all this spiritual understanding stands the One who was prepared for us. If we see this with a sincere heart, God will simply enable us to conquer all these things. For this is what He has done.
