Prayers for the Posterity

Acts 19:8-21

Those who have the gospel can pray. One cannot pray without knowing the word Christ. The gospel is unconditional liberation from everything. The conclusion of the Bible is that those who have the right Gospel only need to pray. The Gospel turns everything into blessings, even family curses that have nothing to do with me. The gospel resolves the past, revives the present, and conquers the future. The answer is the fulfillment of the Word.

4. Conclusion
    1) The church must absolutely have three courtyards. For this, we must open the three day weekend age and head toward the holy meditation age.
    2) All believers must be led to find their mission. Then the kingdom of God comes and the work begins – 300%.
    3) I must have a life goal that makes me live for this. We are not just doing this and that.
